

Monday, May 14th, 2018

-The American Party has been cancelled due to lack of participation.

-Anyone interested in being a buddy for The Miracle League of the Ohio Valley Baseball for this summer should stop in room 144 for an application. Students interested will be helping athletes with special needs play baseball. There will be games from May 19th-July 1st on either Saturday or Sunday.

-All JV Softball players need to turn in their uniforms to Mr. Booth as soon as possible.

-Looking for a summer job? McDonald's is hiring bright young people. You can apply online or pick up an application in the counseling office, or at McDonalds.

-The Cockayne Farmstead is gearing up for its summer activities this year. This will include two festivals (Sheep to Shawl and Appalachian Artisan Festival) and a summer speaker series every other Thursday at noon. They are looking for any interested students who might want to gain some volunteer hours over the summer and might have an interest in history. The first big event is Sheep to Shawl on June 2nd from 10am-4pm. There are various opportunities for students to help during the day. Anyone interested in volunteering can see Mr. Parsons in Room 246.