

Attend Seton Hall
for the same cost as a public university

Public Tuition Rate

Students can attend Seton Hall University, one of the nation's leading Catholic universities, with a $22,500 tuition reduction – making a Seton Hall education as affordable as a public university.

Plus, they will get the added benefits of a nurturing private education: smaller classes, mentoring faculty and a 14:1 student-to-faculty ratio.

To qualify for this rate, students must:

- Have a minimum of a 27 ACT composite score or combined 1200 SAT (CR&M) with not less than 550 on either section;
- Be in the top 10 percent of their high school class; and
- Apply by December 15.

In addition, students who file the FAFSA may be eligible for additional need-based financial aid. This unique program is open to all 2015 high school graduates, from all states, who plan to enroll at Seton Hall in September 2015. No special application is required.
