

- Students... please remember to sign in and out at the Main Office if you are arriving to school late or leaving early.
- The former West Virginia Penitentiary is looking to hire several people for this year's Dungeon of Horrors. Each applicant should be at least 16 years of age, have parental permission, and be available for every show (Fridays, Saturdays, and the last 3 Sundays in October). Applications can be picked up in the former WV Penitentiary gift shop Tuesday through Sunday from 11 am to 4 pm. The deadline to apply is September 10th.
- Paws for a Cause will be hosting a food drive from September 6th through the 10th. The two grades to donate the most items will get to leave class for the afternoon of September 13th to watch or participate in a student vs. faculty volleyball game.
- Students, staff, and school groups are invited to work "Feed the Funnel" on Wednesday, September 8 from 4 to 6 pm in the JMHS Gym. If you wish to participate in this school community service event and pack 15,000 meals for our community, please email Mrs. Parsons at erin.parsons@k12.wv.us.
- Starting Tuesday, September 7th homerooms are invited to decorate your door with school spirit for homecoming. Doors will be judged on Tuesday, September 14th and prizes will be given.
- There will be a pep rally on Friday, September 3rd. On this day, JMHS will follow the assembly schedule. The pep rally will include an introduction of student teams, student recognition, giveaways, games, and the Monarch Maniacs. Show your pride and wear brown and gold to the event!
- Any student wishing to join Student Council will need to sign up through Remind by texting @jmstudc to 81010. If you have any questions see Mrs. Bushovisky or Mrs. Cubick.
- Any student wishing to join the Monarch Maniacs/Spirit Club should see Mrs. Eikleberry in room 336 or Mrs. Eikleberry in the counseling office.
- The theme for this week's home football game is "Welcome to the Jungle" and "Gold Rush for Childhood Cancer Awareness."
- There will be a custom Snapchat filter for home football games this year. Students are encouraged to use it in the stadium and in the parking lot before, during, and after the game. To see what the filter will look like for this week's game, visit the announcements tab of the JMHS website.
